

In such a manner doth God elucidate the determined measure of 'all things' within the Book, perchance humanity may be grateful during the Days of their Lord!

So closely guard your own selves, O Company of the Bayán, that ye do not become veiled from God, your Lord, and continue on night and day in affectionate sanctifications.

Conviction hath brought them to this Wáhid.

And "Blessing unto patrons of the felicity of the great and majestic Day, that Day all shall appear before God their Lord".

Every soul who cherisheth a belief in Muḥammad, may the blessings of God be upon Him and His Family, but doth not return to Him, shall find no refuge beneath His shade, such shall be the recompense for what they hath earned, for God is a witness over 'all things'.

The Nineteenth Báb of the First Wáhid:

Regardeth the statement that the Fourth Gate hath returned to the phenomenal realm unto all who were faithfully awaiting Him and otherwise.
