

*Yea verify the numbers hath been calculated according to that Wáhid, wherefore after this there can be no further calculation!
And prior to this the Letters of the Wáhid in the first Verse could not be estimated accurately as they were preserved by means of the nearness of their heart of hearts between Our hands, and none seeth into them except the Wáhid without a numeral.*

While all these souls hath indeed returned, there was but a single Soul between the hands of God Who hath caused 'all things' to return and hath recreated 'all things' into a new creation by the Most Exalted Revelation of God.

*And afterwards saith,
"O God, bless the Person of the Seven Letters and the Letters of the Living with honor and glory".*

And whosoever believeth 'in Him Whom God shall make manifest' hath indeed successfully completed this first Gate of the first Váhid.

Indeed, within the depths of the inmost heart there is no intimation of true faith except through that Name by which the heart of hearts deriveth its very existence, which is the Almighty, and through Him nothing is perceived except God alone, to Him belongeth the realms of creation and Revelation from before and from after, there is none other God except Him, the Living, the Self Subsisting.

The Eighteenth Báb of the First Váhid:

Regardeth the statement that the Third Gate hath returned to the phenomenal realm unto all who were faithfully awaiting Him and otherwise.
