

That is the First Wáhid of the Forecasted Wáhid that We declare in the month of Bahá through which We hath originated that creation and through which We shall again regenerate it, a Promise binding upon Us. Yea verily We are capable over all!

Though not explicitly revealed within the Qur'án, there is a more important matter than the matter of the Resurrection, and it is the parameters through which the Almighty hath determined the enumeration of every soul who hath become pious through the Faith of the Qur'án.

“To Him belong the Most Beautiful Names, and all within the heavens and the earth and what is between them glorifieth Him. There is none other God but Him, the Living, the Help in Peril, the Self-Subsisting.”

“And verily the Person of the Seven Letters is the Gate of God, never shall I invoke a Gate beside Him.”

Were it not for the nearness of Their inherent qualities, They would not be present between the Hands of God, for the Almighty hath everlastingly and shall forever remain infinite in His Names, even beyond what is infinite; however, every Lucid Name hath been revealed in such a manner that all hath been guided through Their guidance, and within the inmost hearts of these Names naught is seen except God.

The Seventeenth Báb of the First Wáhid:

Regardeth the statement that the Second Gate hath returned to the phenomenal realm unto all who were faithfully awaiting Him and otherwise.
