

*Wherefore the Bayán is Our Proof above 'all things', by Its Verses all the learned are debilitated!
That is indicative of every one of Our Verses, from before and hereafter, just as Thou art, at this very moment,
Our decisive Proof.*

So with the 'Eye of Certitude' consider that the Gates of the Faith of the Bayán hath been arranged according to the count of 'all things' and under the Shadow of each Gate the Angels of the heavens and the earth and whatsoever is between them, by the permission of God, glorify, magnify, sanctify, exalt, honor, and behave accordingly, and all shall during the Dispensation of 'Him Whom God shall cause to be made manifest', which shall occur at the conclusion of Dispensation of the Point of the Bayán, return unto Him. And at the determined count of 'all things', when even the obstinate souls hath returned unto Him, the Fruit of 'all things' will have become readily apparent unto Him.

*Prior to His appearance, the Person of the Seven Letters hath been established alongside His Letters,
Who is foremost in Intimate Communion.*

We hath duly informed you, O society of the Bayán, of the sublimity of your generation through the Phrase of your Lord, that ye do not become veiled from the reality of 'Him Whom God shall cause to be made manifest' on the Day of Resurrection. For whatsoever ye express about Him resembleth His appearance within your hearts, but that which He expresseth about Himself is that which God hath testified about Himself, “Yea verily, there is none other God except Him, the Help in Peril, the Self-Subsisting”.

There is nothing superior in the whole universe other than the heart of a devotee focused upon God, even to the calculation of nineteen times nineteen nine times, so as to never be veiled from their Beloved. For inasmuch as every soul during its lifetime aspireth for naught but the good pleasure of God, for that indeed is the supreme goal of all.

The Eighth Báb of the First Váhid:

Regardeth the conviction that Muḥammad ibn 'Alí, upon Him be peace, hath returned to the phenomenal realm unto all who were faithfully awaiting Him and otherwise.
